Facebook Page

The Association has a Facebook page, which was created by Richard Crozier in June 2011, but was not very actively promoted at that time, partly due to some misgivings about the use of Facebook, forums, social media. Seems some people can't stand Facebook, some can't imagine life without it. Anyway, we have decided to revive our page and give it a bit of a push, try to spread the message to different people by different channels.

You can find our page at www.facebook.com/scottishcarclubs

Feel free to click the Like button and post a comment. The SACC website now has a matching Like button (you can click that too, aw, go on) and a link to the Facebook page to help publicise the site via Facebook and the Facebook page via the site.

Any articles, notices, announcements for publication on the website and/or posting on the Facebook page are welcome. Send them to the secretary.
