

The following has been asked by Shona Robison, the Minister for Commonwealth Games and Sport.

THE FUTURE OF SPORT AND PHYSICAL ACTIVITY IN AN INDEPENDENT SCOTLAND

Q1. We all want to see Scotland as a successful sporting nation. In your view, how should sport and physical activity in Scotland be developed to help achieve this?

Q2. In an independent Scotland, what would be your vision of how Scotland's sports governing bodies should be structured?

Q3. In an independent Scotland, what is your vision of how sport governing bodies would interact and work with governing bodies across the British Isles, Europe and at World level?

Roger Reed 29th February 2012